EXPLANATION OF RIGHTS AND PLEA OF GUILTY
(Misdemeanors and Municipal Ordinance Violations – Circuit or District Court)

BY ENTERING A PLEA OF GUILTY IN THIS COURT, YOU ARE WAIVING YOUR RIGHT TO A TRIAL BEFORE THIS COURT AND THE FOLLOWING RIGHTS TO WHICH YOU WOULD OTHERWISE BE ENTITLED:

Under the Constitutions of the United States and the State of Alabama, you have a right or privilege not to be compelled to give evidence against yourself. In the trial of your case, you have the right to testify on your own behalf, if you so desire, but no one can require you to so testify. If you testify, you can be cross-examined by the prosecutor. If you do not testify, no one can even comment as to your failure to testify. You have the right to remain silent, but anything that you voluntarily say, with knowledge of your rights, may be used against you. Your conversations with your attorney are confidential and cannot, and will not, be disclosed by your attorney.

You have the right to stand trial on your plea of not guilty and the right to a public trial before a judge. In a trial, the judge would determine whether you are guilty, based upon the evidence in the case.

In the trial of your case, your attorney could subpoena witnesses on your behalf, make legal objections to matters that your attorney felt were incorrect or prejudicial, question witnesses for the prosecution, examine your own witnesses, and argue your case before the trial judge. Your attorney would be bound to everything that he or she could honorably and reasonably do to see that you obtain a fair and impartial trial.

In the trial of your case, you will come into court presumed innocent and this presumption of innocence will follow you throughout the course of the trial until the evidence produced by the prosecution convinces the judge, beyond a reasonable doubt, of your guilt. The burden is upon the prosecution to convince the judge, from the evidence in the case, that you are guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. If the prosecution does not meet such burden of proof, you must be found not guilty. You will have not burden of proof whatsoever in your trial.

You have the right to enter a plea of "Guilty", "Not Guilty," "Not Guilty By Reason of Mental Disease or Defect," or "Not Guilty and Not Guilty By Reason of Mental Disease or Defect." IF YOU PLEAD GUILTY TO THE OFFENSE, THERE WILL BE NO TRIAL BEFORE A JUDGE OF THIS COURT AND YOU WILL BE WAIVING THE RIGHTS LISTED ABOVE.

If you are convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence, which has, as an element, the use or attempted use of physical force, or the threatened use of a deadly weapon, against your current or former spouse; your child of whom you area parent or guardian; a person with whom you share a child in common; a spouse, parent, or guardian with whom you are, or have been, cohabiting or to whom you are similarly situated, and you ship or transport in interstate or foreign commerce, or possess in or affecting commerce, any firearm or ammunition, or if you receive any firearm or ammunition which has been shipped or transported in interstate or foreign commerce, YOU ARE SUBJECT TO BEING PROSECUTED IN FEDERAL COURT FOR VIOLATING 18 U.S.C. 922(g)(9).

If you are not a United States citizen, a guilty plea may subject you to adverse immigration consequences, including deportation (See 8 U.S.C. §1227), exclusion from reentry to the United States and amnesty, and that the appropriate consulate may be informed of the plea and conviction.

By entering a plea of guilty, you will waive your right to appeal, unless in an appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals or Supreme Court (1) you have, before entering the plea of guilty, expressly reserved the right to appeal with respect to a particular issue or issues, in which event appellate review shall be limited to a determination of the issues reserved, or (2) you have timely filed a motion to withdraw the plea of guilty after pronouncement of sentence on the ground that the withdrawal is necessary to correct a manifest injustice, and the court has denied your motion to withdraw your plea, or the motion has been deemed denied by operation of law.

If you have a right to appeal under one of the conditions above and you are determined by the court to be indigent, counsel will be appointed to represent you on appeal if you so desire and if the appeal is from a circuit court judgment or sentence, a copy of the record and the record and the reporter's transcript will be provided at no cost to you. If the appeal is from a municipal or district court, you have a right to demand a jury trial if you indicate your wish to assert this right on the Notice of Appeal.

Except in minor misdemeanors (a misdemeanor offense or municipal ordinance violation for which the defendant will not be punished by a sentence of imprisonment), the court will go over these rights, as well as the nature of the charge and the material elements of the offense, with you. If you have any questions about any of them, upon your request, the judge will make a further explanation to you.

The court having personally addressed the defendant determines that the defendant has entered a plea voluntarily.
